

Blue Growth in the Mediterranean: Perspectives of Spain

Conference Blue Growth in the Mediterranean: Perspectives of Spain . European Commision. Maritime Affairs and Fisheries, 2013

Abstract: For some years now, the European Union has been promoting an Integrated Maritime Policy (IMP) with the aim of offering a more coherent approach to maritime and marine affairs and an improved coordination between relevant actors and sectors. This conference will seek to present solutions to different issues about the potential of the seas and oceans for growth and jobs.
